Masa Israel Teaching Fellows (MITF) is a 10-month, paid teaching fellowship for post-college Jewish young adults (ages 21 - 35) to live, teach English and volunteer in Israel. Beginning in Fall 2019, The Associated will be launching the MITF program in Ashkelon, our sister-city in Israel, and we need your help recruiting the inaugural cohort of teachers! Our hope is that the MITF experience will offer Baltimore-area young adults an opportunity to develop meaningful connections and a great love of Israel and the Jewish people while enhancing the English education for the next generation of students in Ashkelon.
